Colorado Springs, March, 2007 – The 2007 Student Art Exhibit, featuring artwork by University of Colorado at Colorado Springs students is on view at the Gallery of Contemporary Art, UCCS through April 26, 2007.

The 2007 Student Art Exhibition is a juried show and collaborative venture between the UCCS Gallery Management students and the campus Student Art Club. Club officers select a panel of art professionals to adjudicate the exhibition from student body submissions. This years jurors are Monica Escalante (photographer), Angela Forster (mixed media), and Jina Pierce (Curator, Sangre de Cristo Arts and Conference Center). Artists may elect to exhibit work not selected for the Gallery at the University Center's Salon des Refusés. Approximately 50 artists typically submit at least 250 works for adjudication, with Gallery shows averaging 100 works selected for exhibition.

Parking for this event is free in lots 1, 3, and 4.
